5.2 HOME Program

The information included in this section of the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation's (AHFC) Compliance Reference Manual provides brief guidance to many frequently asked questions (FAQ's) pertaining Home Investment Partnership Program (HOME) program. As the AHFC Audit and Compliance staff frequently discuss and interpret HUD rules and regulations with other state agencies and industry professionals, you may find that some of the following guidance falls contrary to what you may understand, particular for those operating in multiple states. These FAQs are based on AHFC Compliance staff interpretations and/or our understandings of HUD rules.

Ultimately, Owners, and their property managers when and where applicable, are responsible for ensuring that their properties are in compliance with all applicable rules and regulations of the HOME program.
