

Application Information and Instructions

These are the instructions for an Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC) rental assistance program application.

- AHFC uses the term “family” throughout this application; a family can be one or more persons.
- Security deposits or other rental expenses are a family’s responsibility.
- An AHFC representative can assist you if you have questions concerning your application.

Reasonable Accommodation Process

If you, or a family member, is a person with a disability, you have the right to ask for a Reasonable Accommodation. You may request a Reasonable Accommodation any time you find it necessary. If you would like more information on the Public Housing Division’s Reasonable Accommodation process or need assistance with the application process, please contact your local AHFC office.

1. Completing your application:
 - a. Apply only for waiting lists which are open – see the Community Information Sheet, check AHFC’s website at www.ahfc.us/publichousing/rental-programs/waiting-list-status/, or call the local office.
 - b. Print clearly or type.
 - c. Answer all the questions to the best of your ability.
 - d. If you are applying for more than one community, you must fill out a new application for each community.
2. Submitting your application:
 - a. Return your application package (see the Community Information Sheet) to the AHFC office in the community in which you wish to live.
 - b. The application may be mailed or hand-delivered to AHFC.
 - c. AHFC does not accept applications by email.
 - d. If you are mailing your application to AHFC, please use the post office box address (if listed). The address for each office is listed on the Community Information Sheet and page 2 of this sheet.
3. Status of your application:
 - a. If you are approved for a waiting list, your place is determined by the date and time your application is received.
 - b. AHFC will notify you in writing with the status of your application.
 - c. If your application is denied, you are entitled to an informal review.

AHFC Fair Housing Statement

It is the policy of Alaska Housing Finance Corporation to further Fair Housing in all its programs. No person shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under AHFC housing programs on the grounds of age, race, color, sex, religion, national or ethnic origin, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
