

2. If a Seller/Service provider participates in a loan, and its mortgage interest rate is not a long-term fixed rate, the DSCR must be calculated at the maximum rate that may be charged to the borrower. The maximum rate that may be charged is five (5) percentage points above the initial rate, but no more than a one (1) percent increase per year.