Subject: 2022 Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend and the Energy Relief Payment Correction

It has come to our attention that the prior directive issued September 8, 2022 regarding the treatment of the 2022 PFD for calculating a household's annual income contained a small discrepancy. For income calculation purposes pertaining to the 2022 PFD the correct amount to use is $2,621.81.

The Energy Relief payment in the amount of $662.19 issued at the same time as the 2022 PFD should not be included when determining annual income as this is a non-recurring payment that is not anticipated to be authorized in the future.
