

4. Utilities

The property utilities are to be managed by the Servicer. AHFC requires the heat and electricity to be maintained through conveyance or disposal unless there are hazardous conditions that would be detrimental to the property or others.