

ERA of Unity: Going the Distance

Day 2 – Wednesday, October 15th

8:00 Breakfast and Check-in

8:30 Welcome Remarks

Bryan Butcher, AHFC CEO/Executive Director

8:45 to 9:30 Putting Partnerships in Perspective

The COVID-19 pandemic brought together regional housing authorities, local governments, and nonprofits to deploy hundreds of millions of dollars in timely relief funding through newly created housing programs.

Dive into the partnerships and hear stories that came from that work. Focus is on five programs that served our neighbors: Rent Relief, Stabilization, Homeowner Assistance, Last Frontier Housing Initiative and Statewide Housing Development Program.

Speakers:

Alaska Housing Finance Corporation – Daniel Delfino, Planning and Program Development Director

Alaska Housing Finance Corporation – Stacy Barnes, Director of Governmental Relations & Public Affairs

Break

9:45 to 11:45 Going the Distance

Part 1 – Storytelling Reflections

During the past four years, not everything has gone to according plan. Sometimes surprises were welcome, other times they presented learning opportunities. Bring your lessons learned and ideas to inform future collaborations.

Part 2 – Opportunities for Continued Partnerships

Transform lessons learned and partnerships made into future opportunities for collaboration. This discussion with a facilitator will incorporate your feedback from throughout the convening.

11:45 to 12:00 Closing Remarks

